DES MOINES OFFICE

Marne Harris is driven by making a difference in the lives of others. At Nyemaster, she champions top-tier support in all of the firm’s business functions so attorneys can focus on what they do best, providing their best service to their clients. This work ethic fits nicely with the firm’s core values.

As a licensed CPA with a master’s in business administration and an extensive background in real estate and business management, Marne has been contributing to the success of others for many years.

Outside of work, Marne can often be found outdoors cycling, hiking, or golfing. She also volunteers with her cycling team and mentors women as they navigate their business careers.
