DES MOINES OFFICE

Mac O'Brien practices in the Business, Finance & Real Estate group. In Mac's general corporate and transactional law practice he regularly assists clients with a wide variety of business law matters, including commercial contracting matters, mergers and acquisitions, reorganizations, corporate governance, entity formations, and buy-sell agreements. In addition, Mac also advises health care and insurance (life, health and property and casualty) clients on a wide range of regulatory and compliance matters, including insurance regulation, licensing, captive insurance, Anti-Kickback Statute, and HIPAA.

Among his strengths, Mac counts being detail-oriented and focused on the expectations of his clients. "I'm going to listen and take a comprehensive view of the legal issues, the potential solutions, and the client's long-term goals," he says. "I want my clients to view me as a partner who is invested in their long-term success—not just another lawyer they call from time to time."
